

JACQUES DE CHATEAUVIEUX

A graduate of the Institut Supérieur de Gestion (ISG) of Paris in 1972, Jacques de Chateaufieux also holds an MBA from Columbia University, New York, 1974.

He began his career in 1975 as a financial controller for l'Union des Transports Aériens (U.T.A) in Paris. In 1976, he joined Boston Consulting Group in Paris as a consultant in business strategy and executive management.

In 1979, he was appointed Chief Executive Officer of family-owned Reunion Island-based company BOURBON with the objective of restructuring the sugar industry of La Reunion.

During the years that followed, Jacques de Chateaufieux transformed BOURBON into a conglomerate listed on the Paris Stock Exchange, successfully positioning it as a major player in the retail and later on in marine services. Between 2001 and 2010, he led BOURBON's gradual focus away from its historic business activities and towards offshore marine services dedicated to the oil and gas industry.

He is currently Chairman of the Board of Directors of BOURBON Corporation.

Jacques de Chateaufieux is also President of JACCAR Holdings SAS, majority shareholder of BOURBON.